It is a pity that those chivalrous Virginians, who were arrested in Washington when about to fight a duel could not have been given a dose of the law.

Now the poor reporters are boycotted because the striking Lake Shore switchmen imagine they are in sympathy with the men who took their places.

GLADSTONE will not have a majority but he will have a minority large enough to block the Tories in any legislation they attempt that will be distasteful to him.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN, who by some miraculous means refrained from drinking for a whole week, is now engaged in another free fight with John Barleycorn in New York.

THERE was a large attendance of the lawyers of the State at Gratton yesterday, where the West Virginia Bar Association was formed. The organization starts off with a good staff of officers.

SINCE prohibition has gone into force the Atlanta tropic has to buy his liquid refreshments by the quart, and is not even allowed the poor privilege of getting away with it on the premises.

THE Belmont Republicans can elect the ticket they put in the field yesterday if they pull together, and we doubt not they will. The party needs the county, and the county needs just such good officials as these men will make.

THE send off given Col. Fournier by his fellow Republicans of Belmont county yesterday was deserved. Whatever may be the will of the Congressional convention Col. Fournier certainly deserves well at the hands of his own county.

THE West Virginia member of the Democratic National Committee has not been a resident of this State for over eight years; but that is a small matter with the party that usually holds its secret convocations at Barnum's hotel, Baltimore.

IT has leaked out that Secretary Whitney was connected with the ephedrine scandal of 1876, and was the mysterious and unknown friend of Nephew Pelton. But this is no reason why Senator Payne should have been Mr. Whitney's father-in-law.

THE Republican editors of Ohio in convention at Columbus yesterday adopted resolutions appealing to the United States Senate to remove the stain resting on their State by unseating Senator Payne, elected to that body by the corrupt use of money. The appeal ought not to be vain.

WHY is McCormick ignored and not hidden to this banquet of Republicans and Greenbacks?—Editor.

HE couldn't attend—he was occupied writing a message of condolence to his excellency Jacob Beeson over his slight in the distribution of invitations to the Democratic levee at Parkersburg.

HOW do West Virginia Republicans like the suggestion of Mr. Menager for a private picnic at the Neil House in Columbus on the 22d, to arrange a slate for nomination?—Register.

WITH the same inexpressible delight that West Virginia Democrats used to appreciate those Barnum Hotel, Baltimore, Democratic convocations in the sweet past.

WHO is "Ekins—West Va.?" Is that the gentleman who is said to have enquired as to the amount necessary to buy the voters of this State in 1884?—Register.

OH, no! You have the names badly mixed. His name was Gorman. He didn't stop to make inquiries as to the amount but brought the bag along and held the mouth wide open while the dear Democratic readers of the Register received the golden nugget.

THE Wilson Murder Trial.

CAMBRIDGE, O., July 8.—The defense in the Wilson murder trial concluded its evidence this evening, without shaking, to any degree, the strong case made by the State. The probability of a conviction seems good. The case will hardly go to the jury before to-morrow evening.

Natural Gas Disputing Coal.

DISSON, PA., July 8.—The use of natural gas in the manufacture of this city has done away with the consumption of 100,000 barrels of coal a day. In 250 working days, which is considered a year by manufacturers, the whole amount of coal displaced would run up to 47,500,000 bushels. Calculating 100 bushels to be an average day's output for a coal mine, it would take 1,000 coal mines to dig this coal; but although the use of natural gas has thrown about 5,000 men out of work in this region, it required the use of 533 railroad cars to transport the black diamonds. Each of these, thirty feet in length, would make a string 18,000 feet, or a distance of more than three miles long.

Arthur Agins a President.

NEW YORK, July 8.—Ex-President Arthur was today elected President of the Board of Directors of the Arcade Railway Company. Vice President Smith stated to the meeting that he had just received a telegram from Mr. Arthur which stated that the sender was very much improved in health, and that he expected to take an energetic part in the affairs of the company. The company is to build an underground railroad in Broadway.

On the Track of Wilson.

PHILADELPHIA, July 8.—A dispatch was received in this city to-day from Rutland, Vt., which stated that a Pinkerton detective had arrived at that place, having traced J. A. Wilson, the assassin of President Garfield, to the Chesapeake & Delaware Canal at Bellevue Falls.

Third Tragedy in Two Weeks.

PITTSBURGH, July 8.—The third tragedy within three weeks occurred at the Parker house in Latrobe, Pa., last night. During a quarrel a well known citizen named James Wilson shot and instantly killed by a person in the crowd. No arrests have been made.

STARTED FOR BLOOD

BUT GOT INTO THE LOCK-UP.

A West Virginian and a Hot Headed Son of the Old Dominion Start Out to Fight a Duel, but are Nabbed in Time by the Washington Authorities.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 8.—Charles Porterfield, one of the most popular young men of Charleston, Jefferson county, and Charles Morton, of Richmond, who were arrested yesterday while preparing to go to Virginia for the purpose of fighting a duel with pistols, have been arrested by the police of Washington, and are now in the city jail. The cause of the quarrel which led to the meeting was an insulting letter written to Porterfield's father by Morton, in which the latter accused the former of intercepting letters he had written Porterfield's father.

Mr. C. B. Butcher, also of West Virginia, was to have been master of ceremonies at the duel, and made all the arrangements for the meeting. He accompanied the chivalrous gentlemen from the city this afternoon.

The West Virginia colony here is very much excited over the sensational developments in the case.

The Idaho Marshaling.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 8.—Senator Joseph Van Meter, of Hampshire county, is in the city looking after the appointment of his son Arthur, who is an applicant for the United States Marshaling of Idaho Territory. The appointment will be made by the President.

After Gen. Frick's Place.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 8.—Hon. Wood Daley is here, and it is said he is urging the President to place District Attorney Flick in the place of the late Senator Frick, whose term will expire on the 31st of August.

Foolish Fricks.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 8.—Joseph Fricks, the leader of all the Socialists and Anarchists of this section of the country, was arrested to-night at the instance of the postal authorities on a charge of sending written matter enclosed in newspapers through the mails as lower class or printed matter. Fricks was the agent of Henry M. Fricks, of Fricks, who had written matter enclosed in that paper. The postal authorities opened a number of packages sent by Fricks, and also discovered incendiary circulars calling upon workmen to arm themselves and revenge the death of the slain. Fricks was taken to the police station, and is now in the city jail.

It is the intention of the postoffice authorities to push the case, and United States District Attorney Stone said it was very probable that Fricks would be indicted for each offense, which would insure a heavy fine and long imprisonment.

THE PEOPLE'S TICKET

NOMINATED AT BRIDGEPORT

By Belmont County Republicans Yesterday. A large, good-humored Convention, true to Republican Principles and Precedents—The Resolutions.

AUDITOR—DAVID H. DARRAH. CLERK OF THE COUNTY—SAMUEL R. PIPER. SHERIFF—E. E. FOOTE. RECORDER—JOHN BECK. COMMISSIONER—MORRIS COPE. INTERIMARY DIRECTOR (full term)—JOHN A. CLARE.

CONOMER—SAMUEL MARTIN.

The Belmont County Republican Convention met in the Mammoth rink, in Kirkwood, yesterday at 11 a. m. It was largely attended by the best representatives of the Republicans in the county, the farmer from his harvest fields, the artisan from his shop, the merchant from his store, the lawyer from his office, all meeting together for safe counsel. The colored voters were not forgotten, but were represented in the person of Samuel Cochran, of St. Clairsville, an intelligent young man, long a resident of the town.

The convention was called to order about 11 o'clock after a patriotic air by the On Our Band, of Ensignville, which furnished pleasing strains throughout the day.

Rev. Mr. Winters of the Bridgeport M. E. Church, opened the convention with a fervent and appropriate invocation of the divine blessing, and business was then proceeded with.

HON. L. DARTFORD.

Ex-Congressman Dartford, of St. Clairsville, who had been chosen by the county Committee as Temporary Chairman of the convention, was then called to his seat. In assuming the position he made a brief but ringing speech, thanking the committee for the honor conferred upon him. He said the campaign was not upon dead issues. These had vanished with the past, and the rights of the present must be made on the living questions of the day. He referred to "boodles" in politics, and said any attempt to introduce the "boodles" of the late Republican politics should be met with firm and indignant opposition. He was frequently and heartily applauded during the course of his remarks.

Mr. W. A. Hunt, of the St. Clairsville Chronicle, was called to the desk as Temporary Secretary.

On motion the chairman was authorized to name the usual committees. He appointed them as follows:
